IMAGINE A WORLD WHERE
MENTAL WELLNESS ISN'T
JUST A GOAL,
BUT A WAY OF LIFE?

Amare is more than a company to me, it's my legacy.

And when I think about legacy, I think about the people from those we can help, to those who are helping us shape the future of mental wellness. This is a movement rooted in purpose and powered by people.

David Chung, Chairman & Chief Executive Officer, Amare Global

WHO ARE WE?

AMARE

THE MENTAL WELLNESS COMPANY

At Amare, we're on a global mission that's rooted in love, built on science and designed to take your mental wellness, self-care and your life to the next level.

We're powered by mind-body connection expertise and a relentless commitment to innovating new technologies.

We're driven to help people all over the world achieve deep, meaningful mental wellness, for greater well-being inside and out.

Love, Amare

Built on SCIENCE

Our formulas, tools and insights are rooted in scientific evidence and expertise.

Made for CONNECTION

We're built on connections: mind-body, gut-brain, people to people. These connections are the foundation of our results.

Rooted in LOVE

Amare means "love". It motivates, inspires, and drives us. We're passionate about helping people everywhere achieve meaningful mental wellness.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

Science-backed supplements and products made for the mind-body connection to help you feel, look and live your best inside and out.

MENTAL WELLNESS IS PHYSICAL WELLNESS

Your mental and physical wellness are deeply connected and we recognize that supporting your mental wellness means supporting the whole you.

WELLNESS SHOULD WORK FOR YOU

We believe in personalized, practical mental wellness that fits your life and your family's life not the other way around. Our products meet you where you are. And we make sure they taste good so you can enjoy it every sip of the way.

IT'S NOT ABOUT PERFECT DAYS - JUST BETTER ONES

Mental wellness is not a luxury it's a necessity. And true wellness isn't about chasing an idea. It's about showing up, feeling supported, and making each new day a little better than the last.

QUALITY IS ALWAYS THE MAIN INGREDIENT

What we put into our products is just as important as what you get out of them. Quality drives every decision. Because when it come to your well-being, there are no shortcuts only the highest standards.
