All of the Good Stuff. None of the Bad.

Rooibos Powder – a south African red bush tea and is a caffeine-free alternative to black and green tea for energy and alertness, but also has antioxidant properties, inflammatory benefits, and blood sugar control properties.*

Pomegranate Seed Extract – pomegranates are rich in antioxidants and flavonoids, both of which are known to prevent free radicals from damaging your cells.*

Asian Apple Polyphenols (Applephenon®) – delivers powerful antioxidant properties from its optimized profile of proanthocyanidins, that deliver both “1st brain” and “2nd brain” effects to support mental and physical energy benefits.*

New Zealand Pine Bark Polyphenols (Enzogenol™) – is rich in OPCs (oligomeric proantho-cyanidins) that are known for their wide range of benefits in cellular protection, cardiovascular performance, alleviation of fatigue, memory enhancement, and enhanced mental acuity.*

French Grape Seed Polyphenols (Enovita®) – contains polyphenol flavonoids with both antioxidant and antiinflammatory properties. In particular, specific research on grape seed extracts have shown biological properties, including cardioprotective, neuroprotective, and hepatoprotective activities, as well as specific “2nd brain” energy benefits via direct inflammatory-balancing effects within the GI tract.
