

Clarify Dry Shampoo Powder Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How many uses should the Clarify Dry Shampoo Powder be good for (until the bottle is empty)?

A: The Clarify Dry Shampoo Powder should be good for up to 24 uses, or two to three months of use.

Q: Why does the bottom of the dry shampoo twist off?

A: The Dry Shampoo packaging was created to be refillable. The bottom twists off because you can purchase refills of the Dry Shampoo powder.

Q: Does the Dry Shampoo contain fragrance?

A: No, the Dry Shampoo is fragrance free. If you experience a scent, it is due to the ingredients used in the formula providing a natural scent.

Q: Will this dry shampoo make my hair smell fresh and clean?

A: The dry shampoo powder features a natural scent from rosemary, peppermint, spearmint, and chamomile essential oils.

Q: How does a powder compare to a spray regarding how much I need to use?

A: The dry shampoo powder is very different from a typical aerosol spray. Because it absorbs sweat and oil continuously like a sponge, you won't need to reapply it as frequently to make your hair look clean once you apply it. It also leaves hair feeling naturally soft, not stiff, sticky, or loaded down.

Q: Is this powder going to show in my dark hair?

A: The dry shampoo is designed with a vanishing tint that blends seamlessly into dark hair.

Q: Is this dry shampoo sustainable?

A: Yes, the dry shampoo is sustainably designed with responsibly sourced ingredients and contains no talc. Additionally, the packaging is created to be refillable.

Q: Is the Clarify Dry Shampoo Powder talc-free?

A: Yes, the formula is talc free.
